Training 'Team Pass'

Join and pay before 30 June 2019 to get more from your team training budget

Training savings & convenience

- Join and pay before 30 June 2019 to get training savings
- Redeem over 12 months on Equinox IT public and in-house training
- Embed learning with follow-up Equinox IT consulting and coaching.

How it works

Equinox IT delivers public and in-house training courses to develop IT skills and capability in areas such as Agile and Scrum, Business Analysis, Solution Architecture and IT leadership.

- Register team members on scheduled Equinox IT public courses
- Request team specific Equinox IT in-house training
- Use allocated consulting time for:
    - in-house course customisation
    - consulting advice
    - follow-up learning and coaching
- We'll manage your balance.

Terms

Equinox IT standard training terms and conditions apply. Additional terms for this service:

- Offer valid until 30 June 2019 and payment is required before this date
- The Pass will be activated once payment is made and will be active for 12 months
- The Pass cannot be used for training that has already been booked and invoiced prior to purchasing the Pass
- The Pass applies to the organisation named in the agreement
- You will be responsible for any third-party expenses if required for in-house training (e.g. room hire, instructor travel)
- Training relates only to public and in-house training courses offered by Equinox IT
- Consulting and coaching time will be delivered by Equinox IT consultants and wherever possible the same consultant who delivered the training. Unfortunately, this is not possible for training delivered by our training partners.
